

Let's start at the top.

Have you any idea what goes on at the United Nations building in New York?

Every now and then you might see a news clip of some feat of diplomatic derring do or some politician sincerely telling the world that there is indisputable evidence of weapons of mass destruction in some out of the way country which just happens to have enormous oil resources but is that all that happens there? Just why does the United Nations Organisation require one of the largest and most secure office buildings in the world if that is all that goes on there? I mean, what happens the other 99.99997% of the time? What goes on there that we don't know about? What goes on there that even the elected members of our own governments don't know about? What is the United Nations REALLY about?

As with many such organisations, it started out with high ideals but, because the founding members were unable to agree about almost everything, it fell into the hands of the lowest common denominator (as has frequently happened throughout recorded history). In this case, as with Germany in the 1930's, it is the self-styled "superior humans" who have reached through the chaos to take control for their own personal ends.

Now, you may be forgiven for thinking that the removal of the Nazi Party from power after the Second World War stopped all such activities. The point is that you were never told the rest! The Nazi Party was merely the political wing of a black magic cult which was actively seeking to bring the whole world under their domination by replacing "good" politicians with obedient members of their cult, i.e. rule in secrecy by the elite of the cult through puppet proxies. After the war, it was merely the Nazi Party which was removed; the cult which gave birth to and controlled it absolutely survives to this day completely untouched. Very few of the elite of the cult played their roles in public. Prominent amongst them were, however, Dr. Goebbels from whom Hitler took his orders and Fritz derMeer, the head of IG Farbenindustrie, a major financial backer of the cult and major supplier to both the Nazi war machine and to the extermination camps for which he received a six year prison sentence at Nürnberg. Mussolini, interestingly but revealingly, said, "Fascism should, more appropriately, be called corporatism because it is a merger of state and corporate power."

After his release from prison, Mr. DerMeer decamped to the United Nations in New York to join his former colleagues in the takeover of that organisation and to participate in the creation of a new plan for world domination by the cult and the extermination of all "unnecessary" people.

The cult has as its core beliefs that their members (presently calling themselves "The Illuminati") are the superior humans who have both the right to enslave all "lower", i.e. not members of the cult, humans and to "cleanse" the World of all "inferior" beings. To this end a programme was begun in 1962 which culminates on the 31st of December 2009 at which point it will be, virtually world wide, a crime to be in possession of nutritious food! This programme is called the "Codex Alimentarius".

The ostensible premise upon which it is based is that anything taken into the human mouth is a toxin unless (of course) it is a pharmaceutical! To "safeguard" health, it is "necessary" to determine the safe dosage using the same procedure as is used to determine the "safe" level of exposure to known highly toxic chemicals. The result is that the "safe" levels for a number of known essential nutrients has been set at a small fraction of that necessary for human health! All nutrients not specifically permitted by Codex Alimentarius (a very small percentage of those essential for human health) are automatically banned! In addition, sodium fluoride, a substance with no known nutritional value, is certified as a nutrient safe for human consumption at a conspicuously high dosage. Why? Well, this toxin was first used on humans in the Gulag Archipelago prison camps. Prisoners given fluoridated water were docile, compliant and obeyed orders without question thus permitting a large reduction in the numbers of prison guards required.

After fifty years of human "experimentation" throughout N. America and Europe, the promised improvements in dental health have failed to materialise, a number of serious chronic diseases have become commonplace in fluoridated areas and the American people have become very docile! Criminal acts much worse than those which provoked such outrage that a revolutionary war against the British Empire was fought and won in the 18th century are just complacently accepted as done deeds and the perpetrators allowed to continue their abuses.

So, where does this leave us?

According the estimates presented by the World Trade Organisation and Food and Agricultural Organisation (both departments of the United Nations under the umbrella of the World Health Organisation) the implementation of Codex Alimentarius will cause three billions deaths! That's 3,000,000,000 people are to be murdered for corporate profit and the aggrandisement of the self appointed "superior humans". One billion, that's 1,000,000,000 will dies of starvation as it becomes a crime to supply foodstuffs to the hungry. Two billion, that's 2,000,000,000 will die as the result of preventable diseases due to chronic under-nutrition.

Let's make this clear: Half of the world's population is to be killed off for profit. Half of your friends and your family are scheduled to be murdered starting on the 1st of January 2010. How do you feel about this? Are you going to let this happen as well or are you at last going to find your courage and say "enough is enough" as the founding fathers said and to strike out not only for your liberty and your life but for your very right to exist upon this planet?

So, who are your tormentors?

Well, almost every member of every US administration for the last several decades has been party to this conspiracy. Tony Blair, Angela Merckel, etc. etc. The list is quite long. The pharmaceutical cartel, the banking cartel, Monsanto & Co, the list goes on. These are the #1 enemies of the people. When you find your courage, you will know what to do.

Right now there is a bill, number C51 before parliament in Canada based upon deliberate lying, malpractice, suppression of the facts and an amazing chunk of cash from those arch-protectors of human values the pharmaceutical conglomerates.

This bill is intended to destroy the health of vast numbers of Canadians. It will, amongst other provisions, make it a crime, carrying the same punishment as cocaine dealing, to be in possession of the same amount of vitamin C as is found in three oranges!

More tomorrow.

Blessed be
